

Taranaki Oil & Gas Security Working Group

Thursday 11 December 2014

1200 – 1400hrs (approx.)

Boardroom, Origin Energy,
32 – 38 Molesworth Street, New Plymouth

Agenda

- | | | |
|---------------|-------------------------|--|
| ❖ 1200 - 1210 | [REDACTED] | Lunch is served. |
| ❖ 1210 – 1215 | [REDACTED] | Welcome and housekeeping |
| ❖ 1215-1225 | Inspector Ross Grantham | Introduction and any points of business |
| ❖ 1225-1230 | Nick Thompson | Approval of minutes from last meeting |
| ❖ 1230-1315 | All | Introductions and updates from attendees on current projects and any upcoming projects until 2015 (5mins/company) |
| ❖ 1315 - 1345 | Rob Duindam | Rob Duindam is a Police Inspector based in the National Criminal Investigations Group at police National HQ. [REDACTED] and in recent years has managed a number of national programmes of work such as the introduction of the Search & Surveillance Act and Psychoactive Substances Act. He is currently on secondment as the Programme Manager for the Whole of Government Action plan on Gangs. "The Crime Prevention Partnership Forum (CPPF) was formed five years ago. It is an active collaboration between business associations/ industry groups and Police focused on sharing information and intelligence and promoting crime prevention opportunities for the NZ business community. A review of the Forum during 2014 has identified a range of new opportunities that can be implemented in 2015 and beyond. Rob will be talking to the group about the Forum and its future to impact on crime in the commercial sector. |
| ❖ 1345-1355 | All | Any other business |
| ❖ 1355-1400 | Nick Thompson | Round up, actions and next meeting date |